

BARNE-, LIKESTILLINGS- OG INKLUDERINGSDEPARTEMEN-

Form B (English) – Page 1 of 2

This form is mandatory pursuant to the Regulations on the Standard Withdrawal Form of 27 February 2001, issued by BARNE-, LIKESTILLINGS- OG INKLUDERINGSDEPARTEMENTET under the authority of the Act of 21 December 2000 No. 105 relating to the Duty to Provide Information and the Right of Withdrawal in Distance Selling and Off-Premises Sales (the Right of Withdrawal Act), Section 10. It shall be used for distance sales and off-premises sales of goods.

YOU HAVE AN UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL WITHIN 14 DAYS

Under the Right of Withdrawal Act, the consumer has the right to withdraw from the agreement without giving any reason within 14 days after receiving the goods in full and all information required under Chapter 3 of the Right of Withdrawal Act (see page 2 of this form). For distance sales, the withdrawal period shall, in any event, expire no later than three (3) months after receipt of the goods, or one (1) year if the required information concerning the right of withdrawal has not been provided. No corresponding time limit applies to off-premises sales.

Notice of withdrawal must be given to the seller before the expiry of the applicable withdrawal period and may be given by any means. You may use this form, which must be completed by the seller as specified below. The withdrawal period shall be deemed to have been observed if the notice is dispatched before the applicable deadline. You should retain proof that the notice was dispatched.

To be completed by the seller

Seller's Name: DC VN COMPANY LIMITED.

Seller's Address: 60 TL 40 Street, Quarter 1, An Phu Dong Ward, Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam.

Telephone Number: +84 981423177 Email Address: monte@montenapoleone.no

To be completed by the purchaser.

IMPORTANT: Do not send this form to Barne-, likestillings- og inkluderingsdepartementet.

Date Goods Received (Date): _____ I hereby exercise my right of withdrawal.

Order Number:

Name:

Address:

Telephone Number:

Email Address:

Date: _____ Signature: _____

COMMENCEMENT OF THE WITHDRAWAL PERIOD

The information required under Chapter 3 of the Right of Withdrawal Act shall be deemed to have been duly provided when the requirements of Section 9, read in conjunction with Section 7, have been satisfied and this form has been received, duly completed with the information to be provided by the seller. See the excerpts from Sections 9 and 7 below.

Section 9. Information Requirements upon Conclusion of Contracts for Goods and Services Other than Financial Services

In connection with the conclusion of a contract, the consumer shall receive the following information in writing on a durable medium available to the consumer:

- a) The information referred to in Section 7(1), paragraphs (a)–(f).
- b) The conditions, procedures, and legal effects of exercising the right of withdrawal.
- c) Information regarding any after-sales service and the applicable warranty terms.
- d) The conditions governing the termination of contracts of indefinite duration or contracts with a duration exceeding one (1) year.
- e) Confirmation of the order.

For contracts for the sale of goods, the consumer shall receive the above information no later than the time of delivery. Where the goods are to be delivered to a person other than the purchaser, it may be agreed that the information shall be provided after delivery of the goods. However, the information referred to in paragraphs (b)–(e) shall, in all cases, be provided after the conclusion of the contract, even if it has previously been supplied in the same manner.

Section 7. Information Requirements for Contracts for Goods and Services Other than Financial Services
Before a contract is concluded, the consumer shall receive such information as the consumer may reasonably expect to receive, including any information to which the consumer is entitled under other applicable legislation.

In all cases, the consumer shall be provided with the following information:

- a) The principal characteristics of the goods or services.
- b) The total amount payable by the consumer, including all taxes, delivery charges, and a specification of the individual components of the total price.
- c) Whether the consumer has a right of withdrawal.
- d) All material terms and conditions of the contract, including the arrangements for payment, delivery, or other performance of the contract, and, where the contract provides for ongoing performance, its duration.
- e) The name and address of the seller or service provider.
- f) The period during which the offer or the stated price remains valid.

SETTLEMENT AND RETURN COSTS WHEN EXERCISING THE RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL

If you exercise your right of withdrawal, you are entitled to a refund of all amounts paid, including all charges actually incurred by the consumer, such as postage, handling fees, and cash-on-delivery charges. The seller shall be entitled to the return of the goods.

Unless otherwise agreed between the purchaser and the seller or required by special circumstances, the purchaser shall bear the cost of returning the goods.

OTHER INFORMATION

You do not lose your right of withdrawal by opening a shipment of goods, provided that the goods can be returned in substantially the same condition and quantity as when received.

The Right of Withdrawal Act does not affect any rights you may have under, among other legislation, the Consumer Purchases Act, in the event of defects in the goods or delays in delivery. If you retain the goods, you may, subject to the applicable conditions, be entitled to claim a price reduction, replacement of the goods, damages, or rescission of the purchase with a full refund. Any such claim must be made within a reasonable time after the defect or non-conformity was discovered.

If you have any questions regarding the Right of Withdrawal Act, the Consumer Purchases Act, or other consumer protection legislation, you may contact the Forbrukerrådet.

Website: <http://forbrukerportalen.no>

THIS FORM MAY BE COPIED.